The Training Session

Introduction

This manual is your comprehensive guide for preparing and presenting an effective training session for club sponsors. By the end of this session, the members of your audience will have the knowledge they need to establish new Toastmasters clubs.

Training does not end with the training session; it is a process that continues throughout a leader's term. Let participants know their District leaders are all available to help if questions arise during their time in this role.

Conducting the Session

The Starting From Scratch – How to Sponsor New Clubs manual describes the process of beginning a Toastmasters club and the support needed to establish it. This manual consists of three parts:

- ▶ Definition and explanation of the session
- ▶ A training outline
- ▶ A PowerPoint presentation

In Your Own Words

The outline is not a script and should not be read word-for-word. Instead, use the document as a guide for presenting the material with your own narrative style. This training may be modified by each District as necessary.

Using Visual Aids and Handouts Effectively

Visual aids and handouts add interest and help your audience retain information. You are encouraged to use them. If you plan to use the PowerPoint slides, you will need a projector, a laptop computer, a table to support them, and a screen for viewing. The presenter's outline indicates when each PowerPoint slide should be shown. Each slide is numbered. Please note that the first slide in the PowerPoint show is a title slide and is not included in this numbering system.

If you cannot arrange for projection equipment but still would like to use visuals, you may copy the material onto a flipchart. Do this before the presentation. Use a heavy marking pen that does not seep through the paper, and write on every third or fourth page so succeeding visuals do not show through. Make the letters large and heavy with plenty of space between them.

Follow these tips when using visual aids:

- ▶ Set them up and test them before the meeting begins. Place them so they are easily visible to the audience. Place your projector so it projects a large, undistorted image on the screen. Focus the image.
- ▶ Bring spare equipment, such as a projector bulb, extension cord, and extra marking pens.
- ▶ Display your visuals only when they are needed. If you are using a flipchart, flip the page back out of view when you are finished with it.
- ▶ Remember not to stand between the screen/flipchart and your audience, or you will block their view.
- ▶ Maintain eye contact with your audience. If you must turn your back to point out something, pause as you point it out, and then resume speaking only when facing your audience again.

How to Use the Session Outline

The total time for this session is 45 to 60 minutes. Careful attention to time is essential. In preparing for the session, keep two things in mind:

- ▶ Fit your planned discussion into the time allotted for each subject.
- ▶ Allow ample time for group discussion and participation.

Interspersed throughout the outline are boxed segments. These are explanations and guidelines for conducting group exercises and portions of the presentation material. In the columns are keys to visual aids, handouts, and space for you to make notes.

Checklist for Training

- Visual aids prepared
- Room arranged and properly equipped
- Handouts prepared
- Supplies and reference materials on hand
- Laptop and projector available
- Flipchart, easel, and marking pens available
- Notepads and pencils available for each participant

Evaluation and Follow-up

Ask the participants to complete the session evaluation form at the end of this session. Use this information for planning future training sessions.

Outline

Trainer:

Mention the length of the training, the location of the restrooms, emergency exits, and other relevant information.

Introduction

The role of sponsor is integral to the success of a new Toastmasters club.

Trainer:

Ask the participants, “Why does someone sponsor a new Toastmasters club?”

Possible answers:

- ▶ To share the benefits of the Toastmasters education program with others
- ▶ To have a new learning experience
- ▶ To earn credit toward the DTM

V1 Chartering a new club provides even more than this. You also have the opportunity to do the following:

- ▶ Enhance your leadership skills
- ▶ Develop project-management abilities
- ▶ Expand your marketing expertise

V2 Session Topics

There are specific requirements that a member must meet before they can become a club coach.

- ▶ Understand a sponsor’s duties
- ▶ Establish a corporate club
- ▶ Launch a community club
- ▶ Feed their enthusiasm
- ▶ Complete the charter
- ▶ Plan the presentation

V3 A Sponsor’s Duties

What does it take to reap all of these benefits and develop these skills? It takes a commitment to performing the duties of a new club sponsor. Your duties as a new club sponsor are to:

- ▶ Organize the new club
- ▶ Set up regular club meetings
- ▶ Complete the paperwork and plan the charter presentation

V4 Types of Clubs

Before a new club is organized, you need to know what kind of club it is going to be.

- ▶ Corporate
- ▶ Community
- ▶ Advanced
- ▶ Specialty

V5 Establish a Corporate Club

This session will focus on methods for chartering corporate clubs. Many of these same techniques can be used to establish other types of clubs.

The New Club Information Kit

One of the fundamental tools for starting a new club is the New Club Information Kit.

This kit includes:

- ▶ How to Build a Toastmasters Club manual, which includes:
 - Application to Organize a Toastmasters Club
 - Charter Payments
 - Charter Membership Application
 - Charter Club Officer Information
 - Club Information
 - Club Constitution for Member Clubs of Toastmasters International
 - Addendum of Standard Club Options
- ▶ Promotional brochures for recruiting members
 - "Find Your Voice"
 - "Develop Your Leaders From Within"
 - "All About Toastmasters"
 - "Your Path to Leadership"

Note:

The kit is free and can be ordered from the link above or requested from World Headquarters by email at supplyorders@toastmasters.org through our Orders and Tracking Team.

V6 Toastmasters Teamwork

Another resource for starting a new club is your support team. The team working to charter a new club usually consists of the following:

- ▶ Two sponsors
- ▶ Two mentors
 - Experienced members who may join the newly chartered club and provide support and guidance through the new club's first six months to one year

- ▶ The District Director
 - Responsible for appointing all sponsors and mentors for new Toastmasters clubs
- ▶ The Club Growth Director
 - Responsible for assisting the District Director with appointing sponsors and mentors
- ▶ Other Toastmasters and District leaders who have chartered new clubs and are resources for advice and information

Appointment and Credit

Up to two new club sponsors and mentors may be appointed by District Directors or Club Growth Directors. The sponsor and mentor names and their member numbers should appear on the prospective club's Application to Organize. Alternately, District Directors or Club Growth Directors can submit sponsor and mentor information by emailing newclubs@toastmasters.org no later than 60 days from the club charter date. To receive credit, any charter officer may email newclubs@toastmasters.org that a sponsor or mentor has completed their role. This can be processed, for sponsors, immediately after a club charters and, for mentors, six months after the club charter date. Please note, a charter officer may not submit sponsor/mentor credit for themselves and must have another charter officer provide notification.

V7

Identify Your Leads

Most often, the District Director and Club Growth Director will already have a lead for a new club—that is, a company or group already has expressed interest in forming a club. This makes the next steps for organizing a club a little easier. Other times, an individual may need to produce their own leads. When generating leads, the way to establish a corporate club is to secure the support of a person within the organization who can authorize the formation of the club.

Research before you begin approaching companies. Start by making a list of organizations in your area, and then review their websites. You should look for the following:

- ▶ Company:
 - Size (preferably 250+ employees)
 - Location
 - Revenue
 - Industry
- ▶ Key contacts or decision-makers within the organization
- ▶ Company/s:
 - Strategies
 - Key initiatives
 - Priorities
 - Focus and mission
 - Recent news articles pertaining to the company

Use the information you gather to show a company how it will specifically benefit from the Toastmasters education program.

V8 Introduce Yourself

After completing the research, send an email or letter of introduction to each company contact giving some brief information about Toastmasters. Follow these guidelines for an effective email or letter of introduction:

- ▶ Letter:
 - Print on high-quality Toastmasters stationery.
 - Hand-address and stamp the envelope.
- ▶ Email and letter:
 - Provide preliminary information about Toastmasters using facts from your research.
 - Tell them you will call by phone in a few days to schedule a face-to-face appointment.

Note:

It is also helpful to include the brochure "Develop Your Leaders From Within".

V9 After the Introduction

After you send the email or letter of introduction, follow these steps:

1. Call the decision-makers you contacted by email or letter and make an appointment to see them.
 - Do not spend a lot of time giving details about Toastmasters; this is what the face-to-face meeting is for.
2. Prepare for the meeting.
 - Use the research and consider what you know about the company's needs. For example, if you know that the cost is one of the company's major concerns, compare the cost-efficient value of Toastmasters training to other common types of training.
3. Plan questions to ask during the meeting.
 - Design questions to expose as much information as possible about the value that the organization places on leadership and communication skills.
 - Ask contacts about personal development and how leadership and communication skills have played a part in it.
4. During the meeting, share the names of other corporations or local companies that already are benefiting from the Toastmasters program.

Note:

A list of corporations currently sponsoring Toastmasters clubs can be requested by emailing Corporate Relations corporaterelations@toastmasters.org

5. Wrap it up.
 - When the discussion comes to a conclusion, share the Features, Benefits, and Value handout of Toastmasters membership that meets the needs of the organization.

Note:

If the person you meet with does not have the authority to authorize the formation of a club, find out who does and offer to meet with that individual. Provide any information that person will need to make the decision.

V10 Discussing the Finances

Discussing financial matters can be an uncomfortable task. However, it is important to be transparent and broach the subject. After the company has given its conceptual support, finalize its financial commitment and determine what portion of the club costs the company will pay.

Sometimes the company pays the charter fee and new member fee for each member, while members pay their dues. Some companies pay for the banner and other club materials.

V11 Money Matters

Whether you are chartering a corporate or community club, you should plan on holding a demonstration meeting (an abbreviated version of a club meeting that shows how clubs work). Before doing that, however, plan how to handle any money before conducting a demonstration meeting, whether it is for a potential corporate or community club, plan how to handle any money collected from the prospective club.

A sponsor or one of the new club's officers may begin to collect payment for dues and fees from prospective members during or soon after the club's first meeting. Many clubs choose to open a checking account at this stage. In many countries, it is necessary that the club register as a not-for-profit association before an account may be opened. World Headquarters will apply for this registration for all U.S. clubs. In other countries, the officers of the new club should check with local banks to see what type of documentation is required.

For a corporate club, if the management will be covering the club's expenses, the club will need to handle that internally.

If a club has collected payments from prospective members but does not have a bank account of its own, it may select one of the following options, at its own discretion:

- ▶ Designate a club officer to hold the payments until the club has opened an account.
- ▶ Hold the payments until they are sent to Toastmasters International.
- ▶ Deposit the funds into another local club's account with the agreement of the other club.

Mentors advise and assist the club in selecting which option best suits its needs.

Trainer:

Ask the participants:

- ▶ Have any of you conducted a Toastmasters demonstration meeting?
- ▶ Has anyone been in the audience of a Toastmasters demonstration meeting?

Ask those who have conducted a demonstration meeting to share some techniques that worked well for them. Ask those who have been in the demonstration meeting audience what impressed them most about the meeting they attended. Write answers on a flipchart or white board.

V12

The Demonstration Meeting

A demonstration meeting is a sponsor's opportunity to show prospective members how a Toastmasters meeting is conducted and what the Toastmasters program can do for them. A carefully, well-conducted meeting will excite prospective members and make them eager to form a club.

A typical demonstration meeting requires eight or more experienced Toastmasters, each of whom assumes a meeting role, such as the following:

- | | |
|----------------|----------------------|
| 1. Toastmaster | 5. General Evaluator |
| 2. Timer | 6. Speaker |
| 3. Ah-Counter | 7. Evaluator |
| 4. Grammarian | 8. Topicsmaster |

V13

Remember, your goal is to pique interest. Following are some suggestions to help you plan the meeting:

- ▶ Keep the meeting short and within time limitations.
- ▶ If time is limited, include only:
 - A short Table Topics® session
 - One prepared speech
 - One evaluation

For example, if a sponsor is trying to charter a corporate club and the company has allotted 30 minutes for the demonstration meeting and any other information you plan to present, the sponsor must plan accordingly.

- ▶ Select a demonstration meeting team that will present a good, typical, yet abbreviated Toastmasters club meeting.
- ▶ Select Toastmasters to assume various roles:
 - A speaker to present a speech
 - Consider the average speaking experience of the prospective members.
 - A relatively inexperienced speaker who is not too polished will be less likely to intimidate the prospective members.
 - An advanced speaker may illustrate how the Toastmasters program helps members become more skilled speakers.
 - The Toastmaster should make this distinction clear to the audience.
 - An evaluator for that speech:
 - For an inexperienced speaker, the evaluator should be positive and gentle, yet helpful.
 - For an experienced speaker, the evaluator should be more specific, showing that an advanced speaker receives a more detailed evaluation.
- ▶ Invite high-level representatives of the sponsoring organization (if any).
 - Their presence will show prospective members that the organization supports the new club.
 - Introduce these representatives at the beginning of the demonstration meeting.
- ▶ Have each person who attends the meeting sign a guest book and provide their name, address, telephone number, and email address.

V14 Overcoming Possible Barriers

What happens if a sponsor cannot find enough Toastmasters to conduct a demonstration meeting? A sponsor can have a demonstration meeting even if they are the only Toastmaster! If a sponsor is conducting a demonstration meeting alone, the sponsor acts as both Toastmaster of the meeting and narrator.

- ▶ Before the demonstration meeting, appoint prospective members to roles or ask for volunteers. Emphasize that none of the volunteers will have to speak.
- ▶ During the demonstration meeting, the Toastmaster calls on one of the prospective members, who comes to the lectern and is welcomed by the Toastmaster.
- ▶ The Toastmaster then steps to the side and acts as narrator.
- ▶ Briefly describe what the prospective member would say and do in the assigned role.

V15 After the Demonstration Meeting

- ▶ Introduce the sponsors and mentors, explaining their roles and responsibilities.
- ▶ Conduct a brief question-and-answer session with the prospective members, allowing the demonstration team to answer the questions.
- ▶ Ask Toastmasters members to share success stories, explaining to the audience how Toastmasters training has helped them in their careers and in their family and community lives.
- ▶ Complete the Application to Organize form that is included in How to Build a Toastmasters Club in the New Club Information Kit.
- ▶ Submit the Application to Organize to World Headquarters with the $125 USD fee.

Note:

If the company will not cover club expenses, or will partially cover expenses, or if sponsoring a community club, explain the following:

- ▶ Charter fees
- ▶ International and club dues
- ▶ Other potential costs (banner, administrative supplies, etc.)

Ensure that each potential member understands the individual cost.

V16 Launch a Community Club

Toastmasters Teamwork

The support team for community clubs is the same as for company clubs:

- ▶ Two sponsors
- ▶ Two mentors
- ▶ The District Director
 - Responsible for appointing sponsors and mentors for community clubs
- ▶ The Club Growth Director
- ▶ Other Toastmasters and District leaders who have chartered new clubs before and are resources for advice and information

Use the New Club Information Kit in the establishment of a community club.

Note:

A sponsor will not need to perform the research that is necessary to establish a corporate club. It is not necessary to write a formal introductory email or letter.

Much of a sponsor's energy is spent marketing a community club to gain local interest. Unlike a corporate club, a sponsor does not have the ease of a company's intranet or email to communicate to employees. Work with the District to market and publicize the club to the community.

V17 Steps to Chartering

Follow these steps to charter a community club:

1. Plan a demonstration meeting.
 - Schedule the meeting two to four weeks in advance.
 - Publicize and promote the meeting.

Note:

Get free promotion materials or purchase items from the Toastmasters Online Store.

2. Collaborate with the District Public Relations Manager to publicize the demonstration meeting in the media.
 - Send announcements to local publications and be sure to include a photo of one of the speakers of action.
 - Send public service announcements to radio and television stations with taglines that announce the date, time, and place.
3. Contact the local chamber of commerce for a list of businesses and invite the owners and managers to the demonstration meeting.
4. Place posters and announcements on the following:
 - Community bulletin boards
 - Apartment complex laundry rooms and club houses
 - Public libraries
 - Community college campuses
 - Shopping malls
 - Local businesses
5. Target specialized groups using invitation mailings that will contribute a strong core of potential members to the new club, such as the following:
 - Employees of small businesses
 - Religious groups
 - Military personnel

Feed Their Enthusiasm

After a sponsor has built up the prospective members' interest with the demonstration meeting for either a community or corporate club, the next challenge is to keep that interest and enthusiasm for the club going until the club is ready to charter.

Trainer:

Ask the participants, "How do you keep the prospective members' interest and enthusiasm?"

Write the answers on a flipchart or white board.

V18 A sponsor needs to focus the group on the future and capitalize on the group's eagerness.

The following are steps to maintain enthusiasm to charter a club:

1. At the end of the demonstration meeting, announce information about the next meeting:
 - Date
 - Time
 - Place
2. Ask the group to select a temporary:
 - President
 - Treasurer
 - Sergeant at Arms
3. Follow up with reminder notices. Make sure all attendees have given their:
 - Name
 - Address
 - Telephone number
 - Email address
4. Ask the temporary Treasurer to collect the money from those who have decided to join.
5. Obtain enough money to pay the charter fee so that members can receive access to the the educational and administrative materials needed to conduct prospective club meetings.

Note:

The usual practice for collecting the charter fee is to divide the $125 USD by the number of members you believe will be joining the club, then add that fraction to each charter member's dues.

6. Conclude by thanking everyone for coming and acknowledge the meeting hosts, participants, and anyone else who assisted with the event.

Most prospective clubs do not charter immediately. It can take eight or more meetings before the club can complete the charter requirements. Your job is to keep the enthusiasm going, and to ensure everyone stays involved and excited about the new club.

H2

Trainer:

Have participants look at Handout 2. Discuss Meeting 1 Outline. If time allows, discuss Meeting 2 Outline. Ask participants if they have experienced unique meetings that would keep prospective members' enthusiasm going.

V19

Complete the Charter

Once all charter documentation and membership applications are complete, send to World Headquarters along with all new member's fees and dues.

You will find details about the chartering process and paperwork in the How to Build a Toastmasters Club manual.

V20

Plan the Presentation

The presentation of the charter marks the debut of a new Toastmasters club and is an excellent opportunity to recognize those who helped form the club. It is also a chance to generate publicity for the club, so plan the event carefully.

- ▶ Invite all guests with formal invitations.
 - Contact an Area Director, Division Director, or District Director well in advance of the ceremony date so they can plan to attend.
 - Include those individuals instrumental in chartering the club, as well as the following:
 - Local government figures
 - Area and Division Directors
 - Other District leaders
- ▶ If another club helped to sponsor the new club, invite its members to attend.
- ▶ Publicize the charter presentation. Use the following tips when preparing your publicity efforts for corporate and community clubs:

Note:

Remember to be considerate of the club budget and plan for expenses involved for these guests.

- Coordinate your publicity efforts with your District Public Relations Manager.
- Send an announcement to the local media as soon as the charter presentation date is set.
- Follow up with a more detailed release as close to the date as deadlines will allow.
- If local publications cannot send a photographer to the meeting, send them a photo of the presentation with a caption identifying the following:
 - People
 - Date
 - Place
 - Occasion
- ▶ Form committees to handle such things as the following:
 - Decorations

- Seating
- Arrangements for special guests
- Entertainment (if any)
- Registrations
- Refreshments
- Banquet service
- ▶ Prepare a printed program.
- ▶ Include a short Toastmasters meeting followed by the charter presentation.

Note:

The The meeting planner handbook Put on a Good Show can help you in your preparations.

V21

Trainer:

Close the program by directing sponsors to How to Build a Toastmasters Club for details about organizing clubs as well as information regarding chartering speciality or advanced clubs.

Handout Copy

The handouts that follow may be reproduced for distribution to training session participants. Make certain you accurately project the number of attendees so you will have enough materials for everyone.
